Finding Common Ground Through Music
A Special Evening of Chamber Music performed by Jewish and Arab Musicians of the Polyphony String Quartet

Nazareth-based nonprofit Polyphony Education aims to bridge the divide between Arab and Jewish communities in Israel through excellence in western classical music education and performance and foster a vibrant shared Israeli society based on mutual respect and partnership. Particularly during such highly polarizing times, music and the arts can bring diverse musicians, audiences, and communities together, inspiring empathy, communication, and hope.

Concert highlights: Mendelssohn String Quartet No.1 Op. 12; Mozart Duo No. 1 for Violin and Viola in G Major. Works by Bach, Hindemith, Glière and Dvorak.
